

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
WOOLWICH, S. E.

30th July 14

My dear Mr^r Anstons

I can say at once that if you do come and they give me leave to take another fallow I would take you too.

At the same time I am pretty sure I should not be allowed

GOVERNMENT HOUSE

WOOLWICH S. E.

my own extra.

All the War Staff have been made up for some time and now I do not know who has been allotted to me. It is not like it used to be when nothing was arranged till war broke out.

I am sorry I can give you a no more definite answer.

I do a lot for you and yours but I have little power. However I will do what I can.

Personally I don't think time will be bar. Every nation is merely taking precautions.

I thought from what I heard when I got back to the Hotel that I was more needed at my Head Quarters then at Folkestone to left by the 8-30 train last night.
