I thank you
Wednesday.
in New York.
anyway -

May be, ye might be giving me a pound
note one of these days
for all the good food was wasted on ye
here. & another to show for it -

There was two pounds
ye had to credit.

& another would put things right betune us -

Ah. Well. I suppose,
ye'll be roasted alive
one of these days

With the new stove.

May be it's a good way of going out

I have it tried it myself.

But the lobstermen they say don't raise any objection - at least I've never heard of one that did - It's no time

now for more advice

as this hand waked I am As ye will know

So here's to the Play boy of the Western World -

& dont forget to write to the little girl that lives in the big Island along side - for if ye dont write this meself that will still be too what ye were after doing in the town where Ben Austin Grecks live.
