

Dear Pat.

Herewith I enclose a note which may I hope get you an aeroplane trip back here & not break your precious neck. Send it or give it to.

Brig Genl W. S. Brancker.

Director Flying Corps?
War Office.

better send it as early as possible.

Sorry I let you go! I'm missing you badly as now I have to turn to & do a job of work for a change.

G.O.C. has thrown a raid at my head so I'm busy - if Censor sees this he'll probably kick, being thick headed, however as it will be over, for better or worse, by time this reaches you, I'll chance it, especially as this comes from nowhere.

Le Roi des Belges was most enthusiastic about all he saw to-day. He did a good round. MOD LANE, front line,

SUNKEN ROAD, S. 23,
CAMBRIDGE ROAD, PICCADILLY, front line, HAYMARKET, 'OME.

I expect the order of the Golden Fleece at least.

Hope you enjoy yrself

Yours ever

W. J. Williams

28 Sept No.

Corps Commander just sent to say that he had never before seen a line in such soldier like order as ours this morning & that he was exceedingly pleased with all he saw.
