

Dear Pat.

I went round to the hospitals last night & there was no news of the Boy. I am afraid he can't have been brought in, unless by any chance he passed through some of the ambulances other than in Amas. Possibly putting a notice out might get an answer, but I think it is rather doubtful whether you could get it close enough to the Boche for him to get it & read it. However perhaps it would work. I should write as follows:

HAT JEMAND
EINEN ENGLISCHEN
OFFIZIER LEUTNANT.

LAYARD G- ESEHEN
ER WURDE BEIM
ANSCHLAG AM
ABEND des 19<sup>TE</sup>
~~AB~~ IM BEIN
~~BEI~~ VERWUNDET,
UND LAG NACHER
ZWISCHEN DEN
GRABEN. ER IST
EIN JUNGER MANN
MIT SCHWARZEM
HAARE.

I haven't put in the report. I suppose one shouldn't really,
should one? If you looked for him &
couldn't find him,
it looks a little bit fearful that the Bosche might have taken him in. I do hope he is alright.

Is. JEP
