

Best wishes to the family
I hope the funeral was alright

10/5/7

Dear Mr. Armstrong,

brother has just written me and informed me of your great loss - please accept my sincerest Condolence.
I know how tremendous your loss is and how you will feel it so.

Of course there is the satisfaction of knowing it happened in a great cause and that he is one of those who ~~is~~ have helped smooth the path for the future
- But it hardly fills the gap at the time & leaves a hollow feeling about the heart nevertheless.

At one time I used to hear from the family, but since I've been in Mesopotamia I have kind of lost touch with my old Irish friends but I always look at my mail hoping that perhaps I am not entirely forgotten.
I this land of unpromise and dusty deserting.

I hope next year to be fortunate enough to get home to learn to fly, but once one gets east of Suez it is highly difficult.

I hear Sirath

(Tomah) was hit by a bomb & that the Callaghans home was treated in rather a shameful manner. I don't think the Hun Realizes that the material damage he does by "Baby" raiding does not equal the moral damage he does himself by stirring up any latent hatred there may be left in those at home.

If when you can spare a moment for a lonely old friend (almost old "man") in Nassau you don't know to what extent you would cheer him up and if in the future

When I am back in civiliza-tion & there is anything I can do for you never forget that I will always do my very utmost to do what I can for you.

Please again accept my duped sympathy I never knew him but heard so much about him that I almost "thunk" I did.

Yours V.S.
