My dear Mr Armstrong.

So many thanks for your letters. Poor old Gee.
 Some how got mixed up with an aeroplane that was out of control & part of it hit him on the head. However I hear he is back with the Brigade now. General Jellicott is at home. The Naval & Military will always find him. He had a prat show on the 16th & fairly put it across the Boche. We are out now. Nothing & I can tell you are very glad to be out too. I am so sure about the verities of that photograph.
 However I will let it go for you. I will do & see Mr Boulton tomorrow. He may have mixed it up with some other he has at home. I will see him & get him to get Mr Boulton to send it to you. Griska is still with the 8th Brigade. I am feeling a bit old fashioned partly very tired after that last show & partly from a tooth which has been giving me a rotten time.
 I shall get home if I possibly can for the ladies arrival but things look like being rather difficult to fit in as we were be up in the line. Old Dave expects her to arrive in about 3 weeks time. You old thing in about it's a bad time for her & I only wish to goodness I could see her.

Couldn't do much to help her but anyway I could keep her cheery. She is at present at home. Andrew, Moryblon, Gullafas will find her. I am so tired of the war.

Especially I don't see any end to it for a long time. I wish old Pat went awfully.

Give my love to Johnny & let her know I'm writing to her.

Mary
