motherhood darling,

Ever so many thanks for the photograph which I love to have, and also for Capt Lee's letter, which I will return in this. He is a fine man and I am well he appreciated our wonderful Pat. I like the way he writes of Pat being pleased about the man he taught doing that job, because I always feel too that he knows quite well what's going on here, don't you?

Darling, it must have been just too awful for you trying to open the boxes, I know so well what you mean about Pat, he could look smart and well-dressed in an old sack; could't he?

Do you think now you are back in England you could post me the watch and photo I would so dearly love to have them. My address after Wednesday will be

c/o Sir Hugh Fraser

Strome Ferry Ross-shire Scotland.

It is sad that you are going back to Ireland before I have a chance of seeing you, but I expect it is nicer for you really, isn't it?
No, of course I am not going to delay my scheme any longer than I need. As soon as I get to town I shall see my guardians about it. I would'nt put it aside for anything.

This is a lovely spot, the house looks over the bay, it's two miles across, with rocks on each side, and lovely wide safe sands in the middle for Jim to play on. The bathing is safe too if one doesn't go out far.

I hear Lil is to go to France, poor Queen she doesn't wish him, it will be hard for her.
She will perhaps come to town unless she is nervous for Anthony in the raids, it would be nice to have her there.

Well, darling, it doesn't get any easier, does it? I think of you such a lot.

With much love

Ever your loving
Ken.
