Motherbird dearest,

It was lovely to get your letter, you know how I've been thinking of you all with out my telling you, don't you darling?

Please give dear Jim my love, and thank her for her sweet nice note, it did help having it. I will try and answer to-morrow.

Boyl came and spent a long time with me to-day, and then Peter.

Miss Williams my painting friend I mean, came. They are two of the dearest people I know, and I'd love you to meet them.

I haven't felt awfully fit since the very hot weather, just tired and slack and glands in my neck got bad, but I saw my doctor and got a tonic so I expect I'll be alright soon.

Auntie is next about agreeing I'm far better at work just now, but I'm to get leave in July and have a rest then.
She comes home again this week and Vaughan and Beauty come in June 25th.

How can I cease to pray for thee? Somewhere

In God's great universe thou art to-day;
Can He not reach thee with His tender care Can He not hear me when for thee
I pray?

What matters it to Him who holds within The hollow of His hand all worlds, all space, That thou hast done with earthly pain and sin?
Somewhere within His ken thou hast a place.

Somewhere thou livest and hast need of Him; Somewhere thy soul sees higher heights to climb;
And somewhere still there may be valleys dim,

That than must pass to reach the hills sublime.

Then all the seas, because than can't hear Poe human words of blessing will I pray
O true, brave heart! God bless thee.

In His great universe than art to-day.
