My dear Rosalie

I hope you get this on the 23rd on which day I shall be thinking a great deal about you. Brave little person; you have indeed proved yourself to be,
 as I said you would, a worthy partner of a brave son.

How pleased Pat must be with

Jan. A whole year ago. In being brave, we all know that it costs you.

I cant write now as I am just starting 7.30 a.m. for East Coast.

Yours always

J.
