

STOKE HOUSE,
SEAFORD.

23.10.14.

Nadd done! Delighted to see you are in despatches. Expect you are having a most strenuous time & wish you all luck. I expect you'll be a General before you're done. What a war! Things seem to be going better now, & I feel very confident. What we use to do people is unmeasurable, & I only wish I was young enough to be with you. Stick to it, & let the Germans have what they deserve the brutes. Nothing but soldiers here, about 20000 of them. How house is a kind of hotel, chiefly for the East-Lancs. They find it pretty chilly & dull in their tents & are glad to use our sitting rooms & batt rooms. Quite a lovely lot.

70 ed 5 (the boys mentioned in despatches), pretty good for a start.
If you get news (the Kaiser!) which of course you will do, give Lincoln a two extra for me.

To S.H. Parry

70 ed 5 (the boys) knitting at odd times. it's a sight. They send off cartloads of mittens & mufflers.
